Major in Italian

Page 83

Replace the description for the major in Italian by the following:
Major in Italian Literature and Culture

14 courses of which at least 10 must be courses offered by the Italian department; up to 4 others can be courses dealing with Italian culture offered by other departments, including one or more courses on literary theory. Courses taken outside the department must be approved by the Director of Undergraduate Studies. Of the 10 courses taken in the Italian department no more than 5 can be courses taught in English. Of the 14 courses required for the major at least 8 must be on the C level; A level courses do not count towards the major.

Students returning from a study abroad program in Italy will receive up to 8 credits if the contents of the courses taken abroad relates in a substantive way to some aspect of Italian culture. All returning students must take two C level courses in Italian in their senior year.

Courses Primarily for Undergraduates

German

* offer students who select German to fulfill the college language requirement and those who wish to acquire a basic knowledge of the language an opportunity to express themselves in German and to read modern German prose;

* provide German majors as well as minors with a course of study in language, literature, and culture that forms the basis from which they can pursue their interests in specific areas of concentration; the program emphasizes the modern period (from the 18th century to the presence);

* provide a basis for the understanding of the intellectual and cultural life of Germany for students who are not proficient in German.

Majors in German

The major in German requires 17 courses, 12 core courses and 5 courses for the concentration.

There are five concentrations (Critical Thought, Business Studies, German-Jewish Studies, History, Language and Literature) from which students will choose one.

Courses indicated as a prerequisite for an advanced course may not be taken for credit after the advanced course. Students returning from a study abroad program in their junior year must enroll in three C-level quarter courses in the department.

CORE COURSES
Language: 4 quarter courses in the German Language: two at the B-level (one German B05, remaining course chosen from B05, B08, or B80), and two at the C-level (one C91 Advanced Grammar and Composition and one C91 Advanced Conversation).

Literature: 3 quarter courses in German Literature at the B-level (choose from German B04, B01-1,2,3,4, or B15).

Culture: 4 quarter courses in German Culture at the C-level (choose from German C01, C10-1,2,3,4, C29, or C32).

Modern History: 1 quarter course in History at the C-level (choose between History C44-2 and C49).

CONCENTRATIONS (choose one)

History
German: 3 quarter courses, two at the B-level (choose from German B33-1,2, or B50) and one at the C-level (choose from German C14 German Intellectual History or C32).
History: 2 quarter courses at the C-level (History C38 and C44-1).

Language and Literature
German: 2 quarter courses, one at the B-level (choose from German B01, B05, or B08) and one at the C-level (choose from German C24, C29, or C32).
Linguistics: 3 quarter courses, one at the B-level (choose from Linguistics B04, B05, B06, or B09) and one at the C-level (choose from Linguistics C02, C09, C10, C15, or C62).

'Students pursuing a second major in addition to German must select a concentration in an area distinct from that second major; for example, a double major in German and Economics must select a German concentration in a field other than economics (except for Comparative Literary Studies, International Studies or Business Institutions where certain courses may count for both programs).

Minor in German

The Department of German offers two minors: a Minor in German and a Minor in Business German.
Each Minor requires 9 courses. The Minor in German is designed to give students a solid language proficiency at the upper level and a significant knowledge of German culture. The Minor in Business German is designed to prepare students for a career in government service or international business, or for graduate study in international economics, management, trade, or law.

Courses indicated as a prerequisite for an advanced course may not be taken for credit after the advanced course. Students returning from a study abroad program in their junior year must enroll in one C-level quarter course in the department.

Language: 4 quarter courses in the German Language; two at the B-level (one German B05, remaining course chosen from B03, B05, B08, or B80), and two at the C-level (one C91 Advanced Grammar and Composition and one C91 Advanced Conversation).

Literature/Culture: 4 quarter courses in German Literature and Culture: two at the B-level (choose from German B04, B01-1,2,3,4, or B15) and two at the C-level (choose from German C01, C10-1,2,3,4, C29, or C32).

Modern History: 1 quarter course in History at the C-level (choose between History C44-2 and C49).

MINOR IN BUSINESS GERMAN

Language: 4 quarter courses in the German Language; two at the B-level (one German B05, remaining course chosen from B03, B05, or B08), and two at the C-level (one C91 Advanced Grammar and Composition and one C91 Advanced Conversation).

Business German: 4 quarter courses in Business German; two at the B-level (German B80) and two at the C-level (German C80). German B80 and C80 may be repeated for credit with different materials.
Economics: 1 quarter course in Economics (choose between Economics B01 or B02)

TWO INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED BUSINESS GERMAN EXAMINATIONS
Students completing a German Major with a concentration in Business Studies or a Minor in Business German have a chance to take one or both of the internationally recognized Business German Examinations offered each Spring Quarter through Northwestern University. Business German credentials are important in today's job market for two reasons: German is a leading language in the European market, and German corporations have over 2500 subsidiaries and affiliations in the USA which employ nearly 600'000 Americans.

'Successful' students completing two quarters of German B80 may sign up for the Zertifikat Deutsch für den Beruf (ZDfB). This exam was jointly developed by the Goethe-Institut and the Deutscher Volkshochschulverband.

Students successfully completing two quarters of German C80 may sign up for the Prüfung Wirtschaftsdeutsch International (PWD). This exam was developed by the Goethe-Institut, the Association of German Chambers of Industry and Commerce, and the Carl Duisberg Centers.

For more information on these exams, consult the German homepage at www.german.nwu.edu.
